WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

White Sulphur Springs. W. Va., January 10.—The fourteen inches of snow which fell on the first of the month has awakened new interest in the future possibilities of White Sulphur Springs as a winter resort. It has been known for many years only as a summer resort, but with the operation of the Greenbrier as an all-year-round hotel, it bids fair to become a very attractive place for winter sports as well.

Sleighing parties have been numerous during the past week, and in addition to the many individual parties. D. B. Pancoast entertained a party of twelve on Wednesday evening at Elmhurst Farm, where a waffle supper was served. The party drove there in an old-fashioned wooden sied, drawn by four horses. Among those enjoying the hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. D. S. B. Chew, of Philadelphia; Mrs. E. A. Leverone, of Cincinnati, Mrs. Gaston Balme; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Slocum; Dr. G. B. Capito; Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Healy, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Healy, of Brooklyu.
